

Claim money from personal accounts we closed or restricted because they were inactive

You can use this form to claim the money from closed accounts with Barclays, Woolwich, ING Direct or Standard Life Bank. You'll need to send us this completed form, and certified copies of documents that verify the account holder.

You can claim on behalf of someone else, provided you have a power of attorney document or a signed letter of authority from the account holder. You can't claim for someone else on the same form as one you use for your own claim. Please complete a separate form for this.

If we've restricted access to a foreign currency account

We'll ask you whether you want to reactivate the currency account or close it. If you want to reactivate it, you need to have a Barclays sterling account in the same name as the foreign currency account and provide these account details. If you don't have this, you'll need to close the foreign currency account and we'll send a cheque for the closing balance. You can open a Barclays sterling account and reactivate the foreign currency account by visiting a branch (you'll need to make an appointment – visit barclays.co.uk/branch-finder for the number to book).

How to fill in the form

You can either complete this form online then print it, or print it first and fill it in by hand – you'll then need to post it to us.

Please complete the form in English. You'll need to complete all mandatory and all other relevant sections – any missing information will delay your claim.

Use the tab and arrow keys to move to the next line or section of the form.

Sending certified copies

We can't send your money if you don't send us certified copies of the documents we ask for in section 2. That's because we need to make sure you're the account holder, or you're authorised to access the account.

You'll need to ask a member of Barclays staff, a professional like a solicitor, doctor, or accountant, or an embassy consular or high commission official, to make a certified copy of your documents. If you're in the EU, you can also ask a notary public.

The documents must be certified as follows.

I certify that this is a true copy of the original.

Date

Name

Position

Company or organisation

If your certified documents aren't in English, you also need to send a certified English translation.

Please don't send any original documents, as we're unable to return them to you.

Please tick if you're

Claiming for a joint account

If you're claiming money from an account with two or more account holders, you'll need to send us proof of identify for all the account holders. See section 2b.

Claiming for someone else

If you're claiming on behalf of the account holder, you'll need to send us some extra documents to support your claim. See section 2c.

Claiming after a name change

If the account holder has changed their name from the one on the account, you'll need to send us an official document confirming the name change. See section 2d.

2. Documents you need to send us

2a. All claims

Before we send the money, we need to verify your identity, even if you're claiming on behalf of someone else.

Please send us certified copies of two separate documents – one that proves your identity, and a different one that proves your address. You can use a driving licence as one of these, but not both.

Documents that prove your identity

Send a certified copy of a photo ID in your name, like a passport, driving licence, or UK Armed Forces identity card.

Documents that prove your address

Send a certified copy of a document that shows your current full address, and is dated within the last three months. This could be a bank statement, credit card statement or utility bill. We can't accept online-only bank statements or documents, like water utility bills. You can use a letter from HMRC dated within the last 12 months. You can use a driving licence, if you haven't already used it as proof of identity.

2b. Claiming money from a joint account

As well as the documents from section 2a, you'll need to send us a certified copy of a photo ID for each account holder. This can be their passport, driving licence or a UK Armed Forces identity card.

2c. Claiming on behalf of the account holder

We need to verify the account holder's identity, and confirm that you're authorised to claim the money on their behalf.

You still need to send the documents from section 2a proving your own identity and address.

You'll also need to send us certified copies of

- A photo ID for the account holder
- A document dated within the past three months that shows the account holder's current address
- A power of attorney document, or a letter of authorisation signed by the account holder

You can send a certified copy of the account holder's driving licence to prove either their identity or their address, but not both – you need to send two different documents.

2d. Claiming after a name change

As well as the documents from section 2a, you'll need to send us a certified copy of a document that confirms you've changed your name from the one on your account, like a marriage certificate or deed poll.

3. Cash ISAs

If you're not claiming for any cash ISAs, please skip this section and go to section 5.

Please tell us the details of all the cash ISAs you'd like to claim money for. There's space here for four accounts – if you're claiming for more than four cash ISAs, please print extra copies of this section to fill in, and send them with the rest of the form.

Providing the sort code and account numbers will help us find your account. If you don't know these, please list any previous name or addresses in section 1.

Tax-free benefits

If you want to keep your tax-free benefits, we'll open a new account for each cash ISA you have and transfer your balance into the new account. We'll send your new account details to you by post. You'll need to ask us to do this for each ISA, by ticking the boxes below.

If you live outside the UK, you'll need to transfer your balance to another UK cash ISA provider within two months of us opening the new account. You'll need to check with the new provider to make sure you can transfer the balance to them.

If you don't want to keep your UK tax-free benefits, please fill in section 4 to tell us how you'd like us to send you your money.

4. Payment details for your Cash ISA balance

You only need to complete this section if you haven't asked us to open a new account for your Cash ISA balance.

Please tell us where to send your Cash ISA balance. The balance from each ISA can only be transferred to one account.

Bank transfer is the fastest and safest way for us to send your money. We'll send your money in sterling. If you ask us to send your money to a non-sterling account, the person receiving the payment might have to pay charges to their bank.

We can send you a cheque in sterling instead – you might have to pay a fee if you pay the cheque into a non-sterling account.
