

Your data

Your rights in respect of how MarketFinance process your data are outlined in the Privacy notice found here:

Should you apply as a result of this referral, MarketFinance will share information about your application status and any product balances with Barclays. This is in line with the legitimate Interests of Barclays to offer you alternative solutions should your application with MarketFinance not go through. This is also in order to verify the correct referral fee.

Your rights in respect of how MarketFinance process your data are outlined in the Privacy notice found here: marketfinance.com/terms-and-conditions.

Barclays and MarketFinance may also share information with each other where it is in their legitimate interests to detect, prevent and investigate fraud, money laundering, and other crimes. We may also share information to help recover outstanding debt.

If false or inaccurate information is provided to us and fraud is identified, details may be passed to credit reference and fraud prevention agencies to prevent fraud and money laundering.

In order for Barclays to also consider your application, we will supply your and your business partner's personal information to fraud prevention agencies and they will give us information about you, such as about your financial history. These agencies may in turn share your personal information with other organisations. If fraud is detected, you could be refused certain services, finance or employment. You confirm that the directors, owners or business partners are aware of how we will use their personal data.

For more detailed information on how and why Barclays use your information, including the rights in relation to your personal data, and the legal grounds for using it, please go to barclays.co.uk/important-information/control-your-data or you can request a copy from Barclays.

In partnership with

