

Premier World Account

Additional Terms

These terms apply in addition to the Customer Agreement for the Premier World Account (the “Account”) and should be read in conjunction with the Customer Agreement and the Tariff Guide. In the event of any inconsistency between the Additional Terms and the Customer Agreement, the provisions of the Additional Terms will apply.

Availability

1. The Account is only available to personal clients.
2. The Account is provided by Barclays Bank UK PLC.
3. The Account is available in sterling, US dollar or Euro. Other currencies may be available - please speak to your usual contact for more information.

Features

4. If required, a debit card is available for sterling accounts.
5. If you have registered for our online banking services the Account will be added to your existing online banking profile.
6. Mobile banking may be available on the Account subject to your location and the currency you wish to make a transaction in. Please speak to your usual contact for more information.
7. Regular payments such as direct debits and standing orders can be set up on the Account (sterling accounts only). If you have a debit card, companies can also collect amounts from your Account using a continuous payment authority.

Interest rates

8. Credit Interest Rate - 0%.

Availability of Overdrafts

9. You can overdraw up to an arranged limit at any time but you should not be permanently overdrawn by the whole amount or go over your arranged limit.
10. Overdrafts are repayable on demand.
11. Balances over an arranged overdraft limit will be charged at the unarranged borrowing rate which will be notified to you separately.

Law

12. The terms applying to the Account are governed by English law.

Your right to cancel

13. You may cancel your Account within 14 calendar days of opening or the date you receive these Additional Terms. If you wish to cancel, you must send written notice to your usual contact. You will have no further obligations in relation to the Account and you will not be charged any fee for cancelling.