

Cash ISA Application Form – Using Additional Permitted Subscription (APS) Allowance

You can only apply for a cash ISA using this application form if you have inherited an APS allowance from a deceased spouse or civil partner

Before completing the application please ensure that you have read the 'Key Features' contained within the Cash ISAs from Barclays brochure and the 'Terms and Conditions'.

What is an Additional Permitted Subscription (APS) Allowance

When an ISA investor dies the surviving spouse or civil partner is entitled to make use of the APS allowance over and above the personal annual ISA allowance.

At Barclays, we ask that you open a new ISA to utilise the APS allowance.

The APS allowance is limited to the value of the deceased's ISA(s) as at their date of death, if this is before 6th April 2018. If the deceased's date of death is on or after 6th April 2018, the surviving spouse or civil partner also has the option to wait until the ISA(s) is closed and then claim an APS allowance equal to the value of the deceased's ISA(s) at the point of closure. This will usually be higher as we continue to pay tax-free interest into the ISA(s).

We do this to assess creditworthiness and product suitability, check your identity, manage your account, trace and recover debts and prevent criminal activity. These agencies may in turn share your personal information with other organisations. If fraud is detected, you could be refused certain services, finance or employment. Once you open an account with us, we will share account data with the credit reference agencies on an ongoing basis.

If false or inaccurate information is provided to us and fraud is identified, details may be passed to credit reference and fraud prevention agencies to prevent fraud and money laundering and to verify your identity.

Part 6 – Information on Financial Services Compensation Scheme

Barclays is covered by the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS), the UK's statutory deposit guarantee scheme. The FSCS pays compensation to eligible depositors if a bank is unable to meet its financial obligations. Most depositors are covered by the scheme.

As one of our regulators, the Prudential Regulation Authority requires us to give you the FSCS Information Sheet and accompanying Exclusions List to help you understand whether and how your deposits are protected. This information is included in the Cash ISAs from Barclays brochure. You should read the brochure carefully and then keep it safe for future reference.

I acknowledge I have received the Cash ISAs from Barclays brochure containing the Financial Services Compensation Scheme Information Sheet.

I declare that this APS application form has been completed to the best of my knowledge and belief.
